☐ Corey Schafer

Arguably the best python channel on YouTube
I have personally learned a lot from him

☐ Python Programmer

Giles McMullen-Klein shares tutorials on python and working with data.
You can also find learning resources along with reviews of python/ data science courses

☐ Reuven Lerner

Reuven brings his 27 years of teaching over to you on this channel.

☐ Python Engineer

Another great channel for those interested in Python, Machine Learning, Computer Vision, and Data Science.

☐ Mouse Vs Python

Here at Mouse Vs Python, you will learn about Python through beginner, intermediate and advanced tutorials.

☐ Real Python

There isn't a python concept that you won't find on realpython's channel and blog.

Dan Bader's channel helps Python developers take their coding skills and productivity to the next level

☐ CS Dojo

Python or otherwise, everyone interested in programming and computer science must follow YK's channel
